HAVE YOU THE RIGHT TIME?

Unless your watch has been thoroughly cleaned and oiled with in eighteen months, it can't be absolutely depended upon.

Tiny particles of grit are bound to work into the movement, and unless removed will serve to grind and cut the delicately adjusted pivots.

Our method of cleaning insures thoroughness. The movement is taken apart, each piece is cleaned separately and when you get your watch back, it's in as good condition as when it left the factory.

SOCIETY and WOMAN'S WORK

Miss Pearl Cheney, of Mt. Vernon Avenue, entertained last evening with two tables of "500." A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Among the many delightful social festivities held in the city New Year's eve, there were none which afforded more charming hospitality than the annual New Year hop given in Huber hall between the hours of 8:30 and 12 under the auspices of the Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association.

The members of the association together with a number of invited guests assembled in the hall at 8:30 o'clock and enjoyed a program of twenty-two dance numbers, headed by a three piece orchestra, rendered by Miss Nina Felkner. The concluding number of the program the "Home Sweet Home" waltz was played, as the old year went out and the new year came in.

The great success of the affair was largely due to the efforts of the president, Mrs. William Kelly.

Mrs. E. J. Krauss, Charles street, was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening.

At half after seven Mrs. Krauss was summoned to the front entrance to find fifteen of her friends awaiting admission. A happy evening followed the complete surprise, Miss Myrtle Krauss contributing an interesting paper on "A Trip Among the Mountain Peaks" as a feature of the occasion.

At the delicious buffet luncheon which concluded the affair, Mrs. E. T. Matthews delivered a humorous address, in which she paid charming tribute to her hostess and presented her with two handsome pieces of hand decorated china on behalf of the assembled company.

Those present were Mesdames Manahan, Harden, Newby, Ibeling, H. Harbrough, Archer, Morris, Chart, Russel, Misses Ibeling, Miller, Carrie Morris and Marjorie Morris.

A delightful combination of social and business relations was the entertainment of the employees of the C. W. McClain company, and the managers of the McClain out-of-town credit clothing concerns, Monday and Tuesday evening.

The out of town managers present were Messrs. Silvey, of Zanesville; Roberts, Downey, Cupp and Phillips, of Columbus; Schuchert, of Toledo and Baughman of this city.

A delightful lunch was enjoyed at the Commercial club at noon and the afternoon devoted to a business meeting at which the various phases of the business as it appeared in the various cities, was entertainingly discussed.

Monday evening the large staff of employees of the McClain store and the out-of-town managers were taken to the Majestic hotel, where an elaborate banquet was served. Following the spread the company attended the Family theatre.

The members of the Commercial Club welcomed the New Year with an enjoyable stag banquet and smoker. The affair was largely attended.

The Stitches met regularly at the home of Miss Mae Dowell, of Chase street last evening.

Following a short business session and a dainty spread the members joined in a unique New Years Watch. The affair was one of the most enjoyable ones of club history.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ault, of Caladonia, entertained a small company of guests Monday night. The evening was passed pleasantly at various social diversions.

Mrs. H. O. Toms nicely entertained the members of the "Lark-in's Soap Club" at her home in Prospect, Monday night. The evening was passed pleasantly at games, music and social chat. Light refreshments were served. The husbands of the members were honored guests.

Miss Millie Biggerstaff entertained a company numbering twelve ladies at a watch party at her home in Prospect Monday night. The evening was spent at music and social chat.

The firemen of Prospect enjoyed a banquet in the firemen's apartments Monday night. After an elaborate supper a program of toasts was rendered. The occasion proved one of much social consequence.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tron entertained at their home one mile west of Agosta Monday night. A company numbering forty guests were present. The evening was spent at dancing and cards. A light luncheon was a concluding feature of entertainment.

Miss Olga Morgenthaler, of South Prospect street, entertained a few friends informally last evening with a watch party.

At the residence of the groom's brother and bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Layman, at the corner of Park and Farming streets, Mr. Benjamin H. Layman and Miss Lovella Brady, well known young people of this city, were united in marriage Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Barnard, pastor of the Free Baptist church in the presence of only a few immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Both Mr. and Mrs. Layman are well known in this city where the groom is employed by the Marion Water Works company. They will reside at No. 209 1/2 East Center street, where a cozy home has been prepared by the groom.

One of the prettiest wedding events of the Yuletide season was celebrated at high noon Tuesday when Miss Maude Jane Raub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Raub of one mile south of LaRue, was united in marriage to Mr. Ashbel Quick Covert of Perryville, O.

The Raub home was the scene of the event. Promptly at the appointed hour, the contracting parties attended by Miss Dena Raub, sister of the bride, and Mr. Otis Wolgamot, marched to an altar of palms and ferns arranged artistically in the front parlor. During the last echoes of the Mendelssohn wedding march which had been played by Miss Mabel Topliff, Rev. Mr. Kohl spoke the impressive ceremony.

Immediately following the customary congratulations the guests were ushered to the dining room where an elaborate four course wedding dinner was served. Covers were laid for forty.

The bride, at all times an attractive girl, was doubly so upon this occasion wearing a beautiful gown of green silk voile made over tulle. She carried a shiver bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in pink silk and over-lace silk.

The decorations were elaborate. Holly, wedding bells with ferns and palms used in profusion comprised the decorations, the white and green color theme predominating.

The young people are both very prominent in their respective neighborhoods. The bride is one of the most popular young ladies of LaRue and possesses a score of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes. The groom is a prosperous young business man of Perryville and a man of true character and worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Covert left Tuesday afternoon for an extended wedding trip in the East after which they will be at home in Perryville, Ohio.

The only out-of-town guests present were Dr. and Mrs. Covert, the groom's parents, from Perryville.

CHURCH PEOPLE TO TAKE CENSUS

Will Make Thorough House to House Visitation.

No Influence Will be Used by Visitors to Express a Preference for Any Church.

The churches of Marion, both Catholic and Protestant, are showing an enterprising spirit as well as the good fellowship that exists among them in the census that is to be taken in this city on Thursday of this week.

Residents are requested to furnish information promptly when the visitors call and assist in making the record as complete as possible. Each pastor of the city has supervision of a district, and each church is furnishing its equitable proportion of visitors. A member of any church will call upon families of his own and all other churches within his territory. No influence will be used by the visitor to persuade a family to express a preference for any particular church, this being left entirely with the family.

Catholics and members of the different denominations of Protestants alike will visit both Catholic and Protestant homes. It will greatly assist the visitors if residents will be ready Thursday to give the information as follows:

Name of family and street number of residence.
Number in family.
Number under 18 years of age.
Number attending church at least once a month.
Number attending Sunday School regularly.
Church preference.

PETIT AND GRAND JURIES

Drawn for January Term of Court.

SESSION WILL CONVEENE

In This City on Monday January Twenty-First.

Grand Jury will Report on That Date While the Petit Body is Called for February Fourth.

As a matter of taking time by the forelock and getting the work out of their hands early, County Clerk Klinefelter and Sheriff Brown Monday evening drew from the jury wheel the names of the men who will compose the Grand and Petit juries for the January term of the common pleas court, which opens January 21, at which time the Grand Jury will report.

MAYOR IS DETERMINED

Second Hand Dealers Must be Good.

DAILY REPORTS WANTED

And Must be Furnished in the Future.

Charles McLain Bound Over to the Grand Jury Under Bond of $500—Police Assignments Made.

The mayor and the chief of police are ready to stir up the second hand dealers again because of the failure of several of them to send daily reports to police headquarters as required by law. According to the ordinances the dealers must make a daily report of all purchases made with descriptions of the persons from whom they were purchased.

When called to account some time ago, the dealers sent the reports in for a time, but have since become negligent and the police believe that in some cases a few of the second hand men have purposely shielded men who have been guilty of petty thefts which have been very numerous lately. An attempt will be made to bring the store keepers to time, and if it fails the penalty of the law will be given to all offenders.

Charged with stealing a bicycle belonging to E. A. Manahan, Charles McLain was given a hearing in the mayor's court last night and waiting examination was bound over to the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $200.

McLain was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Bond and Chapman, at his home on Reed avenue. He admitted the theft of the bicycle and also admitted being implicated in the theft of the bicycle belonging to Z. A. Meredith. Before the mayor, McLain denied being connected in either theft.

The bicycle was found by the police in the second hand shop of P. F. Little, on South State street, and McLain's arrest followed. The Meredith wheel has not yet been recovered.

Chief of Police Cornwell has announced the following police assignments for January: District No. 1, Slagle; No. 2, Babcock; No. 3, Frame; No. 4, Hostetter; No. 5, Cusic; No. 6 Chapman; days: uptown, Bond and West End Bell and McDonough.

LOCAL UNION MEN MAKE ARRANGEMENTS

To Bring Labor Day Celebration to This City

Large Meeting Held Monday Evening in the Fahey Hall—Resolutions Committee Chosen

A large gathering of union men was held in the Fahey hall last night and preliminary arrangements made to secure the inter-city Labor Day celebration for this city. Much enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting and committees were appointed to present the resolutions of the local union men to the union men of the surrounding cities.

The local business men will be solicited for subscriptions to make the day a big success, and it is expected that thousands of union men and their families and friends will attend from all over this section of Ohio. A fantastic parade will be the feature of the day if the plans of the local men are carried out.

Merely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Briggs returned to their home in Cincinnati, today, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Amann of East Center street.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of Christian Kull will be conducted from the home, eight miles south of Marion, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Interment will be made in Marion cemetery.

The funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Ralchley were held this afternoon at the late residence of the deceased, corner of Church and State streets, at 1:30 o'clock. The sermon was preached by Rev. D. H. Bailey, of Epworth M. E. Church. The remains were buried in Marion cemetery.
